

Information about Naples

Naples historic city centre is the largest in Europe, covering 1,700 hectares, and is listed by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site.

Over the course of its long history, Naples has been the capital of duchies, kingdoms, and one Empire, and has consistently been one of the major cultural centre with a global sphere of influence, particularly during the Renaissance and Enlightenment eras.

Conference Venue

The conference will be held at the Engineering Faculty of the University of Naples "Federico II"

Piazzale Tecchio - Naples, Italy

web: www.aidaa2013.it

Scope

The 2013 AIDAA Conference is the 22th in the conference series. It will bring together researchers and professionals working in the areas of aerospace sciences and engineering. The goal is to promote significant exchange of scientific information in the community.

The emphasis of the conference will focus on the aerospace Italian community accordingly with the scenario of the actual economic crisis which can be faced only with emerging concepts, techniques and technologies.

Scientific Programme

In addition to the conventional themes covered in the previous editions, the conference will host Forums and Workshops, which bring together key specialists within a common research or industrial project. Contributed papers are invited in all the areas of aeronautic and space sciences and engineering.

Prizes

Two prizes will be awarded by a Jury to the Best Paper and the Best Young Paper.

Papers

The Jury will select also the best papers to be considered for publication inside the AIDAA journal www.aerotecnica.eu
