July 25th – 30th 2010
Ischia, Naples - Italy
Hotel Continental Terme

Third International Symposium on Tomato Diseases

Dear Colleague,

On behalf of the International Society for Horticultural Science (ISHS) and the Italian Organizing Committee (IOC), I present my compliments and have the honor to extend an invitation to you to attend the 3rd International Symposium on Tomato Diseases to be held from July 25th to 30th 2010 in Ischia, Naples - Italy.

The Symposium will be held under the Patronage of ISHS, the Società Italiana di Patologia Vegetale (S.I.Pa.V.), the Associazione Italiana per la Protezione delle Piante (A.I.P.P.), the Società Italiana di Nematologia (S.I.N.), and the Società di Ortoflorofrutticoltura Italiana (SOI).

It will provide a leading opportunity for scientists from around the world to discuss, firsthand, educate and share information on tomato diseases and their control, solve problems through discussion and application of appropriate technologies, contribute to effective and sustainable tomato disease management, strengthen global food security and environmental protection.

I look forward to welcome you to the 3rd International Symposium on Tomato Diseases.

Yours sincerely,

*Prof. Aniello Crescenzi
President
3rd ISTD Organizing Committee*

The Symposium will last 5 working days and will include Plenary Lectures, Invited Lectures and Contributed Papers.

Location

ISCHIA, also known as the “Green Island”, is the largest one in the Gulf of Naples.

It is a volcanic island and its geographical position endows it with a mild climate, which attracts hundreds of visitors annually. The wonders of the thermal water of Ischia have been known since ancient times.

It is not far from the city of Naples to which is connected with regular hydrofoils and ferries.

Venue

The 3rd ISTD will be held at the Congress Center of the Hotel Continental Terme.

This hotel has an unusual fascinating architecture expressed in the Mediterranean style buildings.

The large surrounding park, the five spa-water swimming pools with their different sizes and temperatures and an uncommon range of services make it an island of comfort and beauty nestling in the heart of Ischia.
